Ulster County Directory

Federal, State, County,
City, Town & Village Officials

Published by the
Ulster County Legislature
Tracey A. Bartels, Chair

Dear Ulster County Residents,

On behalf of the Ulster County Legislature, I am pleased to provide you with the 2022 Ulster County Resource Directory. Even in our modern, digital world, our directory remains an important resource for many residents seeking easy access to their local government.

The 2022 directory provides contact information for all of your Ulster County representatives, county departments, and partner agencies. The directory also contains a comprehensive listing of your federal, state, and local officials.

This year's cover photo of a pasture and the world-famous Shawangunk ridgeline is by my friend Laszlo Andacs, a local artist and skydiver from Gardiner. The image celebrates Ulster County's historic farmlands and the breathtaking beauty of our region.

Working family farms are the backbone of Ulster County. They have shaped our region's history and economic prosperity.

Native Americans grew corn, beans, and squash in Ulster County fields. During the American Revolution, Hudson Valley farms were the breadbasket of the 13 colonies.

Today, our working family farms, some dating back three centuries, feed our county's residents and are a vital part of New York's foodshed. Our local farms are essential to the health and wellbeing of all who live here. They drive our economy through agritourism and the farm-to-table movement.

The COVID-19 pandemic highlighted the importance of community. Through isolation, it reminded us how much we need one another. We are strong. We are resilient. As your local government, we are here to help.

For assistance with the many services we provide, please don't hesitate to contact your Ulster County legislator or me directly. We look forward to serving you and continuing to work on your behalf.

Very truly yours,
