

Proposed Local Law Number 6 Of 2024

County Of Ulster

A Local Law Amending Article XXX Of The Ulster County Charter, (Local Law No. 2 Of 2006), And Amending Article XXX Of The Administrative Code For The County Of Ulster, (Local Law No. 10 Of 2008), And Section 216 Of The Code Of The County Of Ulster, Commission of Human Rights, To Modify Various Provisions

BE IT ENACTED, by the Legislature of the County of Ulster, as follows:

SECTION 1. LEGISLATIVE INTENT.

The Ulster County Human Rights Protection Act of 2018, adopted by the Legislature in August 2018, was enacted to "... empower its citizens and to provide local assurances for the safeguarding of basic rights and freedoms and the prevention of unlawful acts of discrimination." In furtherance of that mission, the Ulster County Legislature finds it necessary to embolden and enable the Human Rights Commission by clarifying positions and structure within the Department of Human Rights and the Human Rights Commission, providing greater equity in appointing authority, and safeguarding autonomy by amending the Chair election process.

The Ulster County Legislature also finds that the amendments herein are in keeping with the recommendations made by the Ulster County Charter Revision Commission in their report submitted to the Legislature in September 2023.

SECTION 2. Article XXX Section C-100 of the Ulster County Charter is REPEALED and a new Section C-100 is added to the Ulster County Charter to read as follows:

Article XXX Commission of Human Rights

§ C-100. Director of Human Rights.

A. There shall be a Department of Human Rights headed by a Director of Human Rights who shall be appointed by the County Executive, subject to confirmation of the Legislature, and serve at the County Executive's pleasure. The Director shall have authority, dominion and control over the department, and have the power and authority to appoint and remove officers and employees therein. The Director shall serve as an ex officio non-voting member of the Human Rights Commission.
