Proposed Local Law No. 9 of 2015 (A Local Law Of The County Of Ulster, New York, Known As The “False Alarm Reduction Act”)

PUBLIC COMMENT:

There was (1) speaker signed up for the 1st public hearing comment period.

1. Gregory M. Jenks, Kingston NY: Mr. Jenks is President and Chief Operating Officer of Numrich Gun Parts Corp. who explained most false alarms are the result of the county’s aging infrastructure and not anything that businesses do or don’t do. Mr. Jenks expressed security is not a luxury but a requirement for his firm. He said it’s unreasonable to penalize businesses when most alarms are caused by high winds or other weather events that knock out power to buildings and causing alarms to go off. Mr. Jenks also feels it would increase the cost of insurance premiums.

Minority Leader Kenneth Ronk motioned, seconded by Majority Whip Thomas Briggs to adjourn. All in favor.

PRIVILEGE OF THE FLOOR:

Chairman John R. UCAN was charged to study ways in which to identify how individuals can be helped, identify other ways to prevent abuse and identify ways in which to protect the public from opiate drug abuse in Ulster County. Legislators Belfiglio, Donaldson and Wawro discussed the coalition's work and introduced UCAN Chairman Louis Klein who, along with Mrs. Elizabeth Berardi and Dr. Raymond Harvey, presented a report of UCAN's recommendations to the Legislature.

PRESENTATIONS: There are no presentations scheduled for tonight's meeting.

PUBLIC COMMENT:

There was (1) speaker signed up for Public Comment.

1. Carole Kelder: Mrs. Kelder shared her family's trials and tribulations desperately seeking help for her son Ryan who fought a progressive deadly drug addiction. Although their family had medical insurance that covered inpatient treatment, they were denied noting he would have to "fail" two or three times before he would become eligible for inpatient care. Ryan and the Kelder family experienced many of the same obstacles as the Carter Berardi family mentioned earlier in the evening. The Kelder family lost their son to this deadly disease just last month.
