Ulster County Legislature Seeks Applicants to Serve on County Advisory Boards

Ulster County Industrial Development Agency

Chair Peter Criswell encourages residents of Ulster County to take an active role in county government by volunteering to serve on one of the county's many advisory boards, committees, councils, and commissions. Advisory volunteers provide guidance, insight, and recommendations on policy issues to county government. Advisory volunteers serve without compensation. Visit <https://ulstercountyny.iqm2.com/Citizens/Board> to view open advisory seats.

Apply to serve on the Ulster County Industrial Development Agency (UCIDA)

The mission of UCIDA is to advance the job opportunities, general prosperity, and long-term economic vitality of Ulster County residents by targeting tax incentives, bonding, and other assistance to foster the creation and attraction of new business and the retention and expansion of existing business in Ulster County. Learn more about UCIDA.

There are seven seats on the UCIDA board. Selected applicants will serve a two-year term ending on December 31, 2023. All UCIDA members serve without compensation and continue to hold office until their successors are appointed and qualify.

Deadline to apply is Friday February 16, 2024
