A Local Law To Provide An Exemption For The Increase In Assessed Value Resulting From The Construction Or Reconstruction Of Living Quarters For Senior Parents Or Grandparents Pursuant To Real Property Tax Law Section 469

BE IT ENACTED, by the County Legislature of the County of Ulster, as follows:

Section 1. Purpose. The purpose of this Local Law is to exempt, from real property taxes, property owned by persons who construct or reconstruct residential structures for the purpose of providing living quarters for a parent or grandparent of one of the owners, to the extent provided by this Local Law.

Section 2. Age. This exemption shall only apply to premises being constructed or reconstructed for a parent or grandparent who has attained the age of sixty-two years or older prior to the application for the exemption.

Section 3. Exemption Granted. Pursuant to the provisions of the New York State Real Property Tax Law Section 469, an exemption from taxation is granted to the extent of any increase in assessed value of residential property resulting from the construction or reconstruction of such property for the purpose of providing living quarters for a parent or grandparent, who is sixty-two years of age or older. Such exemption shall not exceed (a) the increase in assessed value resulting from construction or reconstruction of such property, or (b) twenty percent of the total assessed value of such property as improved, or (c) twenty percent of the median sale price of residential property as reported in the most recent sales statistical summary published by the State Board for the County in which the property is located, whichever is less.

Section 4. Exclusions. No such exemption shall be granted unless:

- (a) The property is within the geographical area in which such constructions or reconstruction is permitted, and
- (b) The residential property so constructed or reconstructed is the principal place of residence of the owner.

Section 5. Time Restrictions. Such exemption shall be applicable only to construction or reconstruction which occurred subsequent to the effective date of Real Property Tax Law Section 469, and this Local Law, and shall only apply during taxable years during which at least one such parent or grandparent maintains a primary place of residence in such living quarters.
