PRIVILEGE OF THE FLOOR:

Chair Criswell is granting Privilege of the Floor to New York State Association of Counties (NYSAC) Director of Finance and Intergovernmental Affairs, Dave Lucas. Director Lucas has been invited to discuss implications and impacts of federal cuts on counties. NYSAC, originally called the New York State County Officers Association, is celebrating 100 years of collaboration and advocacy focused on county-specific needs. Since its inception the organization has grown and evolved into the “official voice” of all the counties in New York State. Their mission is “to foster excellence in county government and unite the voice of New York’s county leaders.”

PRIVILEGE OF THE FLOOR:

Chair Criswell is granting Privilege of the Floor to Legislator Gina Hansut, District 10. Legislator Hansut will highlight November as National Pancreatic Cancer Awareness Month and the campaign to raise awareness and promote early detection.

PRIDE PRESENTATION:

This evening the Legislature is honoring Jean LeRose, Director, Helping Hands Food Pantry, with a Pride of Ulster County Award. As an 8th Grade teacher, Jean saw first hand the effects of food insecurity on her students. After 34 years she retired from teaching and began her new line of work serving her community at Helping Hands Food Pantry in Gardiner. Director LeRose has been at the helm since 2005. Jean and her crew of dedicated volunteers help over 200 families each month who are struggling with food insecurity.

Chair Criswell will call upon Legislator Clinton, District 16, and Legislator Sperry, District 17, to present the Pride of Ulster County Award.
